Although some physicians were aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, set few have used pure giverine in combination, or as a solvent, and astually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alreads.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce found that chemically pure giverine, of proper strength, was best for extracting the medicinal properties from these roots and that it gave added value to a tonic compound in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system without the detrimentation.

In cases of chronic allments, attended by marked, or persistent, constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken conjointly with the use of the "Golden Medical Discovery" to regulate the bowels. They and will be found to be a most valuable laxative, or, in fuller doses a cleansing cathartic.

Podophyllin, the active medicinal principle of Mandrake root, enters largely into the composition of the little sugarcular or persistent.
